LOCATE LANGUAGE SAMPLES | PART 2 OF THE iLEAP CYCLE

01

ACTIVITY 1

The Internet is the most popular source of language samples. However, there are many other ways to learn English! This activity will push you to explore other sources of samples.

Read each task below. Think about the samples you would need to complete the task. Then, find a sample source to get the information you require - the internet, a print sample (book, magazine, etc.), a broadcast media sample (TV show, movie, etc.), or a person. You must use each type of sample at least once.

You're a graphic designer, and your assignment is to create a logo featuring an inuksuk.
You work at a garden centre, and your boss wants you to prepare a presentation for customers about the proper care of crocuses.
Your French-Canadian friend is having a party, and wants to know if you can help her by making a tortiere.
A local magazine is accepting submissions for a Viator poem-writing contest.
You want to submit a business proposal to open a shop.
Your workplace has put you in charge of organizing a company outing.

ACTIVITY 2

Review the goal you set last week. Do you still want to pursue this goal? If not, create a new one!

Once you have a clear goal, search for samples you can use to achieve your goal. Be sure to use a variety of sources.

Your goal:

Samples:
